Inman Gallery is pleased to present a summer group exhibition titled Homelife. Organized for the gallery by painters Dana Frankfort and Gael Stack, the exhibition includes selected work by 16 artists. The exhibition opens with a public reception Friday, July 8th, from 6-8pm and will be on view through Saturday, August 27th.

In organizing this exhibition, Frankfort and Stack state: "The work chosen for this show is emblematic of 'homelife', the danger that lurks there, and the precariousness and variety of it all."

When asked to speak about what "homelife" meant to her, participating artist Vera Iliatova stated:

I left my home in Saint Petersburg 25 years ago. I think about the building that's still there with a staircase leading to the fourth floor, through the padded door into the apartment overlooking the park. Every time I return to Saint Petersburg, I stand outside the building looking up at the windows, wondering what would have happened if I had never left.

Artists included in the exhibition are: Charis Ammon, Patricia Gonzalez, Spencer Harris, Vera Iliatova (courtesy Tibor de Nagy Gallery, NY), Tracey Keller, Melinda Laszczynski, Trevon Latin, Joshua Litos, Lisa Ludwig (courtesy Moody Gallery, Houston), Cat McCaully, Jordan McGroary, Aranxa Ortega, James Radcliffe, Richard Ryan, Henry Sekimotto, and Kelli Vance (courtesy McClain Gallery, Houston).
